INSTRUCTIONS

Please refer to Policy GJA Evaluation of Non-teaching Employees.

Supervisor

- a) Advise the employee that an assessment meeting will occur and the date of the meeting, at least one week in advance.
- b) Provide a copy of a blank assessment form to the employee and request that the employee complete a self-assessment in preparation for the meeting.
- c) Objective input may be obtained from the employees' peers i.e. individuals with whom the employee works or interacts with on a regular basis. Agreement will be reached between the employee and the supervisor on who will be requested to provide input. Those selected will be provided with a blank copy of the form to complete. All peer assessments will be compiled in a summary. The summary will be attached to the assessment.
- d) Complete your own assessment of the employees' performance in draft form, to be discussed with the employee during the meeting. Provide examples for illustration.
- e) During the meeting, the employee and the supervisor will discuss the employee's self-assessment and the supervisor's assessment.
- f) Discuss the goals and objectives to be reached and determine appropriate timelines for each goal.
- g) The final assessment form will be prepared by the supervisor following the meeting.
- h) Give the employee the completed form to review, add comments and sign.
- i) Submit the completed form to the Division office for processing; or to the Senior Administrator where probation or merit increase is not approved.

Employee

- a) The Supervisor will provide the employee with a blank assessment form, for the employee to prepare a self-assessment. The self-assessment will not be filed in the personnel file but will be used in discussions with the supervisor.
- b) Peers may be selected to provide objective input of an employees performance. The employee and the supervisor will agree on who will be requested to provide input. The peers selected will be given a blank copy of the assessment form to complete. The peer will be instructed to comment only on those things observed during direct interactions with the employee. The comments provided to the supervisor by the peers will be summarized and provided to the employee. A copy will also be attached to the assessment form.
- c) During the meeting, the employee and the supervisor will discuss the assessment and set goals and objectives for the following year.
- d) The supervisor will complete the assessment form following the meeting with the employee and forward it to the employee for comments and signature.
- e) Return the signed form to the supervisor. Signing the form indicates the assessment has been read by the employee. It does not denote agreement with the assessment.
- f) If the employee does not agree with the assessment, the employee may include comments.

DEFINITIONS OF PERFORMANCE CATEGORIES

1. UNSATISFACTORY

This performance category is used when an individual does not meet one or more of the fundamental requirements of the skill, criteria or position and additional development of skills and knowledge is required.

Examples might be: quality of work depicts serious shortcomings, the quantity produced is below acceptable standards, and the results are inadequate; due dates are often missed, lack of understanding of job after review with supervisor, insufficient attempt or lack of ability to improve and little initiative in work and accomplishment; Working relationships with others are poor to the point of being seriously detrimental to the work; Work is generally completed on schedule but, in some instances, time frames are exceeded; has on occasion required additional direction and overseeing; most policies and procedures are understood but some objectives have not been realized.

2. SATISFACTORY

This performance category represents competence and adeptness. This level of performance consistently meets all of the requirements of the skill, criteria or position. The criteria and expectations have been met and may sometimes have been exceeded.

Examples might be: always completes work on time and within budget; work is error free; works within agreed upon responsibilities and objectives; policies and procedures are clearly understood and successfully applied; thoroughly comprehends and contributes to the role and mission of the work unit.
