VIOLENCE PREVENTION

Canada's Criminal Code prohibits violence. You have a right to live and work without being subjected to violence. This regulation outlines what to do if you are subjected to threats or violence at work, or if you, as a manager or an employee, become aware of a violent situation.

This regulation is divided into the following sub-sections:

1. Definitions
2. Responsibilities
3. Prevention
4. Incident Reporting and Investigation
5. Discipline
6. Assistance to Employees Subjected to Violence

“Violence” is the attempted or actual exercise of physical force and/or any threatening statement or behaviour that gives a person reason to believe that physical force shall be used against them.

- b. A workplace is defined as any place where individuals perform work or work-related duties or functions for Frontier School Division.

2. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Division, its administrators, its principals, supervisors, staff and students are responsible for supporting a safe work working environment that is free from violence.
